THE STARS HAVE SET Could Not Play Ball With the H. A. C.

BABBITT FELL DOWN AT CRISIS

Record Crowd at Punahou—Excellent Umpiring a Feature of the Game.

The king is dead; long live the king. The new power on the local diamond is the Honolulu Athletic Club, which by winning the championship on Saturday established, in its first season, an undisputed claim to supremacy among the other city nines. On Saturday's exhibition the Stars must be relegated to the limbo of Charlie Mitchell and the baseball giants, now decrepit, of yesterday.

The two clubs have cut a victorious swath in the league games this season, neither until Saturday having lost a game. The Stars, basking in the deceiving glamor of former greatness, were supremely confident of success, and their overweening confidence was so infectious that when the game was called the black and whites had legions of backers. The Athletics were by no means sanguine of victory but were determined to do or die. The kanakas were with them to a man and a wad of hard money was placed on the red and whites simply on account of the grit and enterprise shown by the club in the season of its inception, and belief in the old saying that nothing succeeds like success.

Long before the time announced for the game a great crowd had assembled at Punahou and by the time of the third inning fully two thousand people were in attendance. Old-timers remarked that it was the biggest baseball crowd that Honolulu has ever seen. Among the spectators, prior to the game, opinions were freely expressed that the Stars were unfortunate in not having been able to secure a stronger pitcher than Babbitt. Many of the spectators did not hesitate to criticize the condition of more than one of the Star players, and, whereas the Stars had been firm favorites in town when the game was called it was an even break as far as favoritism was concerned.

The game was bitterly contested until the sixth inning, when the score was two all. It looked, up to the seventh, as if the score would be kept down wonderfully. The Stars retained Babbitt just an inning too long and it in great measure lost them the game. In the seventh the Athletics scored at their own sweet will and accumulated nine runs. In this they were materially assisted by errors on the part of Davis and Bowers. The former was palpably out of condition and seems to have forgotten all that he may ever have known about the game.

Morris Keohokalohe and H. Whitney, Jr., officiated as umpires and their work was a revelation to those unfortunate enough to have witnessed the alleged umpiring of former league games. What they said went, and that their work was satisfactory is best attested by the fact that not a word of dispute was voiced during the entire game. The best of order prevailed and the game was unmarked by the offensive rivalry which has done so much to dispiritize baseball in Honolulu.

The Athletics opened the ball futilely, and when their opponents' turn came they got one of their members home and joy sprouted in the hearts of their supporters.

The clubmen evened matters up in the second, thanks to loose fielding, and the Stars were retired for the proverbial goose egg.

In the third the Athletics' efforts were again brought to naught and the Stars secured a lead of one. The Athletics came back with another in the fourth, tying the score, and the fifth and sixth proved barren.

At this juncture a young lady in the crowd remarked to her escort that the Athletics were her favorites on account of their nice clean suits.

"Oh, that don't count," replied the young man, who wore black and white ribbons in the lapel of his coat; "they never played ball before and their suits haven't had to be washed."

In the seventh Babbitt went to pieces and it was good-bye Stars. A three-bagger, a two-bagger, stolen bases and singles fell out of the box with grace and promptitude, and Davis and Bowers did all in their power to help the good thing along. The score at the close of the eventful seventh was, H. A. C., 11; Stars, 4. The clubmen stood a good show of adding another run or two to their total in the seventh had not Dayton lapsed into somnolence at first base and his slumbers were rudely disturbed by the Star custodian.

When the Athletics retired in the seventh the club choir rendered "The Stars Were Chasing the Ball Around the Field." The selection was vigorously applauded.

It was "all off" with the Stars. Al. Castle, the old Oahu College boy, supplanting Babbitt, and Davis, who played worse as he grew older, was shifted from first to third, but it was like searching the wharf after the opium is hidden under the boards in Ah Sing's rottiesterie.

The two nines each annexed a single in the eighth and both eggs falling to hatch in the concluding act, the Stars set and the Athletics went to town in backs.

The correct score of the game, which differs materially from that kept by the official scorer, is as follows:

DIAMOND DUST.

"Who are, who are, who are we?"

"We are, we are, H. A. C."

The Honolulu Athletics achieved a notable distinction by winning the championship the first time out.

Al. Moore was in the game with a game leg.

It is safe to bet that the President's cup was appropriately christened on Saturday night.

Gorman, as usual, was seen to advantage both behind the bat and in "bull con."

Babbitt was good while he lasted.

Three old Oahu College boys played for the Stars.

Castle's work with the ball made a good impression with the crowd.

Jimmy Williams at short played brilliantly and is in the front rank of the home talent.

Safe-placed hits were few and far between on Saturday.

Lewis is an artist of no mean order with the stick.

Kaanoi, Brown, Lewis and Hansman were responsible for some beautiful catches.

It is said that the Athletics have a strong football team in sight.

A game between the champions and a picked nine will be worth patronizing Pain's street-car service to witness.

DRINK GOOD COFFEE AND HELP A CHILD

About a year and a half ago I opened a home in Kona, on the Island of Hawaii, for orphans and other needy children. I now have twenty children to feed, clothe and educate. I am dependent largely on the coffee raised at this home for the support of the children. I have on hand the crops for three years past. I have just opened the Kona coffee store on Fort street near King, telephone Blue 1621. No. 1 Kona coffee, fresh roasted and ground to order, delivered to any part of town or Waikiki. Call at the store or order by phone. Help support a needy child by helping yourself to a delicious coffee.

GRAND AND TRIAL JURORS SUMMONED

August Term of Circuit Court Begins Today—1000 Acre Case Continued.

The grand and trial juries for the August term will appear in court this morning, and the business of the new term will be taken up by Judge Gear. The matter of chief interest will probably be the charge to the Grand Jury, which, it is expected, will begin immediately upon the consideration of the cases of the half dozen prisoners who were released on habeas corpus, and immediately re-arrested for their old crimes by Sheriff Brown.

The Grand Jury was drawn by Bailiff Hopkins, and is composed as follows:

John Adams Baker, Charles Notley, George Parmelee Castle, Charles Spencer Crane, William Montrose Graham, John H. Wise, James Erskine Fullerton, John Harry Soper, Frank Pratt McIntyre, Robert A. C. Peterson, Frank H. Armstrong, Frederick Joseph Church, John Crowder, Henry R. MacFarlane, Frederick John Cross, Albert Andrews Wilson, William Saffery Wood, James A. Low, Prince David Kawanakoa, Frederick Martin Lewis, Charles Thomas Wilder, Lemuel Clark Abels, Horace Joseph Pratt, Nathaniel Sanders Sachs.

The trial jury was served by Bailiff Ellis, and is made up of the following:

J. B. Atherton, F. W. Beardslee, W. A. Baldwin, Henry Buchanan, Isaac L. Cockett, Oscar Cox, S. M. Damon, B. F. Dillingham, Robert W. Davis, W. E. Irving, Antoni Fernandez, E. S. Holt, W. W. Hall, E. K. Haman, D. K. Hoopili, Frank Harvey, P. C. Jones, Joseph Kunewa, George Kakaucha, Thomas Krouse, J. A. Legros, R. C. Lane, David Lawrence, J. A. McCandless, George Nawaakoo, B. Naukana, A. W. Pearson, D. B. Renear, Mark P. Robinson, W. C. Rowell, G. F. Renton, James Spencer, W. J. White, John S. Walker, Joseph Zablan.

GOVERNMENT MAY INTERFERE.

In the case of Atherton vs. the Wahiawa Sugar Co., in Circuit Court Saturday, Attorney Dunne appeared in response to the request of Judge Gear on behalf of the United States, relative to the thousand acre clause, which the plaintiff is alleged to be violating, and asked a continuance until he could communicate with the United States Attorney General at Washington. The plaintiff objected to the delay of thirty days as asked by Mr. Dunne, claiming that the rights of the Government would not be impaired, no matter what the outcome of the present case. Judge Gear granted the continuance.

COURT NOTES.

Suit has been entered in the Circuit Court by Victoria S. Buffandeau vs. A. A. Montano of Monon, for the partition of land in Manoa in which she holds two-thirds interest, and the defendant one-third. The property in question is largely taro land.

Grateful Chinese Workman.

There is one Chinese in Honolulu who is full of thanks and gratitude, and that is Chi Kan, who is just out of the hospital, where he has been for several weeks past, suffering from a severe fracture of the right leg. Chi is a very hard worker, for the reason that he has in China an old father and mother who live by his exertions. While working at Moanalua he was knocked down by a mule cart and the wheel passing over his leg, the fracture was the result. Mr. Samuel Damon, for whom he was working, was informed of the accident, and had the unfortunate Chinese sent to the hospital, where he has been cared for until his convalescence. During all this time Chi Kan has been easy in mind for his wages have been going on just the same. He has been constantly visited by Mr. Frank Damon, and kept supplied with all that is good for him, so that he now leaves the hospital with much gratitude and many thanks to his benefactor.

At last reports the steel combine was about to invoke the assistance of the United States courts by injunction against strikes.

The steamship St. Paul arrived at San Francisco from Nome last week, with two and a half million dollars.
